Little Red Riding Hood

Bavaria

Little Red sets off to Grandmutter's house with a basket of goodies and along the way meets a feisty squirrel, a sweet rabbit family and a wolf in sheep's clothing! This humorous version features the music and songs of Sue Ennis, including a sing-along and the amusing Wolf Aria.

Celebrations of Light

The World

From around the world, traditional festivals of light are celebrated with puppets, songs, stories and dance. The show includes an original story about Pepito, a lonely cactus and a star named Estrella. Nationally recognized songwriter Sue Ennis has penned two songs. Pepito sings the mournful "Cactus Lament" answered by Estrella singing the hopeful "Sing Sí, Sí with Me".

Funny Woman Who Lost Her Dumpling

A Funny Woman grabs her umbrella and leaps after a rice dumpling that bounces down into another world. Following a road, she meets 3 statues of Jizo, each warning her of danger...but an Oni (horned ogre) finds her and takes her captive. To save herself, the Funny Woman uses humor and her wits to adapt to changing situations.

Brother Coyote and Sister Fox

In this delightful and hilarious adaptation of a Mexican folktale...Brother Coyote wants one thing and one thing only, to catch and eat one of Doña Conchita's plump chickens. Quick-witted Sister Fox is always one step ahead of him, waiting to trick him with one of her clever schemes to keep all the chickens to herself! English, Spanish and plenty of chickens!
