2017-2018 SCHOOL SEASON

Hans Christian Andersen's

Pixie and the Grocer ■ DENMARK

In this Hans Christian Andersen story, a Pixie lives comfortably with a greedy Grocer and his wife. One day he observes a poor Poet give up food in exchange for a book. The Pixie peeks into the Poet's room and sees the beauty and excitement of poetry dance before his eyes! Should he switch his services to the Poet and live a less comfortable life?

Magnuson Park Theatre: Oct. 4, 5, 6

BYT-Crossroads Theatre: Oct. 11, 12, 13

Sunset Hill Community Club: Oct. 18, 20

Beatrix Potter's

The Tale of Two Bad Mice ■ GREAT BRITAIN

Young Beatrix Potter re-enacts the day her pet mice came to be called "the two bad mice." The mice, Tom Thumb and Hunca Munca, are driven to outrageous behavior when they discover the delicious looking food in the Doll House is inedible plaster! Originally created with a grant from the Jim Henson Foundation.

Thistle Studio at Magnuson Park: Nov. 29, 30, Dec. 1

Sunset Hill Community Club: Dec. 6, 8

BYT-Crossroads Theatre: Dec. 13, 14, 15

Performances at 10:30AM & 12:30PM. Reservations required. Each production is 45 minutes, not including post-show demonstration/discussion. Education Guides, prepared by a certified teacher, will be sent via PDF.

Tiger and the Dried Persimmon ■ KOREA

A young tiger, thinking he is the fiercest in all Korea, ventures down a mountainside in search of food. Stopping by a farmhouse he mistakenly thinks that a dried persimmon (kotgum) is a frightening creature. His misadventures with animals, totems and a thief reveal the rich culture and traditions of Korea.

BYT-Crossroads Theatre: Feb. 28, Mar. 1, 2

Magnuson Park Theatre: Mar. 7, 8, 9

Sunset Hill Community Club: Mar. 14, 16

Auntie Lena's African Stories ■ AFRICA

Actress/singer/storyteller Val Thomas-Matson and her friend Possum introduce animals that tell three stories of friendship from Africa. Jackal loves to trick his friend Hare in "Jackal's Favorite Game." "The Monkey's Heart" is a trickster story of a friendship betrayed, and a new friendship is explored in "Why Frog and Snake Never Play Together."

Magnuson Park Theatre: May 2, 3, 4

Sunset Hill Community Club: May 16, 18

BYT-Crossroads Theatre: May 23, 24, 25
